THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1853.

Queen "Lil," too, is at the mercy of the Cleveland-Gresham administration.

WASHINGTON HESING, a Chicago editor, has been appointed postmaster of Chicago.

EIGHT counties in the state elected lady superintendents of public schools at the last election.

Tua Wilson Tariff bill should be enacted. "A Bill to Make the Coming Winter Hard and Bitter for American Workingmen."

The Kentuckian, noted for its frankness, relates that Christian County is liable to present a candidate for Congress in the person of Dr. J. D. Clardy.

SENATOR PEPPER has decided to act as godfather to his new National Party and wants to, at the same time, to be it's candidate for president. He aims high but means well.

It may be possible after all that Secretary Gresham is the victim of circumstances, but if he is, no one should be more anxious than himself to make this plain to the public.
Why not attempt to overthrow this government.

Gov. Brown's lot is strictly an unhappy one due largely to the late constitutional convention and to the legislative of which we have heard so much. Yes, the Governor will retire from politics at the expiration of his term, and glide down the pages of history.

AN OBJECT LESSON.

Gov. McKinley, one of his speeches delivered in Cincinnati, during his late gubernatorial canvass, gave the following incident:

The other day when I was speaking in Northern Ohio, an old merchant brought his books to my hotel.
He had been a merchant from '48 to '64. I wish every one might see those old books. They tell the truth. They tell the cost of living then; they tell the prices of labor then, and I copied from that old book—one of them—an entry dated June 30, 1858, and it was an account between the merchant of the village and the carpenters of the village.

The carpenter was working for the merchant, and on June 30, 1858, the merchant reckoned up his day book with one day's work, $4.50 a day, and on the same day the carpenter bought the following four items, which are charged on the merchant's book, with the prices at that time, and these were the items: Nine yards of calico at 12½c; $1.12; 9 yards of lawn at 12½c; $1.12; 8 pounds of coffee sugar at 12½c a pound, $1; and 12 pounds of cut nails at 7c a pound, 84c. The total for these four items in 1858 was $4.10. The wages received by the carpenter were $1.50 a day. He gave to the merchant his one day's work, bought these four items, and owed the merchant $2.60 in cash.

Now let's take the carpenter of 1852. The pay of the carpenter in 1852 was from $2 to $2.75 a day in Ohio. To take the lowest,

$2.50. Now charge him with the same four items that were charged the carpenter in '58, with the exception of last year, and let us see the result. One day's labor, $2.50—a day, 9 yards of calico at 3c a yard, 9 15c; 9 yards of lawn at 3c a yard, 9 15c; 8 pounds of coffee sugar at 12½c a pound, 9 15c; and 12 pounds of cut nails at 7c a pound, 84c.

The total for these four items in 1852 was $4.10. The wages received by the carpenter in 1852 were $1.50 a day. He gave to the merchant his one day's work to the merchant, bought these four items, paid for them, and out of that day's work had $4.90 cash in his pocket-book.

The carpenter in 1852 gave the same number of hours, the same skill and the same tools; bought the same four items, and owed the merchant $2.60, in cash or nearly two days' additional work. Which do you like the best—1852 or 1858?

The effect of the steady payments each month to the employees of the government in this city has frequently been commented upon.

National Capital.

[From Our Regular Correspondent.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28, 1853.—Washington is a city of changes. Mud and magnificent distances was about correct when Dickens wrote "American Notes." We didn't like the description any better than we liked the mud—not so well, in fact. But we have changed all that. Other things in Washington are magnificent besides the distances. Women, houses, politics, streets, public buildings, newspapers, statesmen, parks, museums, fountains, private secretaries, political meetings, and, oysters, are very plentiful here, though, and absolutely without all around rivals. This is something a particular sistering.

Chairman Harrity, Don M. Dickerson and Josiah Quincy, members of the national democratic executive committee, held a conference with Mr. Cleveland a few days ago on the general question of the democratic policy for the future. Aneant the recent elections, it was the unanimous judgment of all present that the party policy was not involved in the recent elections and should not be any way influenced by the result.

Having completed his engagement with the administration, Senator Voorhees will now take a few days out of Secretary Smith's pen.

And come to live with me.

Rev. E. E. Tupper, of Russellville, gave a lecture at the Union church on last Friday night,—"Subject, "Bottled Life."—Central City Republican.

We suppose that Brother Tupper confined his discourse to Satan mostly with "bad spirits" thrown in as an auxiliary.

Chapman & Son, of Uniontown, have the largest stick of candy ever brought to the county. It weighs thirty pounds.—Morganfield Sun.

It is our candid opinion that the average small boy would not object to a "licking" from that woman.

Sends a pumpkin by first passing for Thanksgiving dinner—our turkey has the cholera.—Green River Republican.

An editor's turkey exists only in the imagination. We can assure our readers that this is really but a case of cholera-in-phantasm.

At Oakland, Ill., a burglar tried to break into a house, but was so fast and nimble till he hit with a windlass—Owensboro Inquirer.

If that fellow is allowed to plead his case, he will doubtless use a great deal of flattery, says our reporter.

Bell Boyd, famous through the civil war as a Confederate spy, is now nearly 60 years old, and lives in a poor house.

She has undertaken to sustain herself by delivering lectures, having recently been divorced from her third husband.— Henderson Gleamer.

We are not familiar with the facts of the case, but it may be that Bell tried playing the spy on the old man, or she may have lured him beyond endurance.

"Squire" Josiah Newland believes he has the whole county out cold in the matter of turnips this year, and the indications are that he is correct. The "Squire" raised 450 bushels of turnips on a single acre of land.—Gloucester Republic.

Curiosity impels us to ask the Republican to please figure out, and let us know how many turnips the "Squire" could raise on a double acre of land?

The Famous laundry at Paducah, owned by B. H. Foster, was assigned Monday. Too much bulldog worn in Paducah.—Mayfield Mirror.

This failure, it seems to us, should be considered under the head of a "washout."

Mrs. Francis Steele, who is teaching school near Farmersville, was knocked down by a pupil last Friday.

She undertook to reprove a boy about fourteen old for some misdeeds, when he struck her and fell her to the floor.—Princeton Banner.

If Miss Steele wishes to exhibit her mettle she will take the iron rod of discipline and whale some of the brass out of that youngster.

The effect of the steady payments each month to the employees of the government in this city has frequently been commented upon.

From a summary recently made it is found that there are 17,599 persons employed by the government and located in Washington. Of this total number, there are 11,471 employees receiving specific salaries whose annual pay amounts to $13, 394.196. The other $6,000 employees are what are known as an amount which brings up the total salary list to something like $15,000,000. On this basis the monthly payments from the national treasury to persons living in this city is about $1,250,000.

Mr. W. L. Garrison, of the New Concord Institute, reports a two million old pig on his premises that is miles wide, and makes a noise identical the same as can be well and thrifty, and bids fair to grow and live to become a large hog. It is quite a curiosity to all who have seen it.—Murphy Ledger.

A case of this kind is sufficient to make one paws and wonder what cat-a-strophe could have overtaken the phenomenal little rooster.

The Hustler composing room returns many thanks to clever Mr.
Ruby for some nice apples received last night.—Madisonville Herald.

Very clever indeed. Ruby appears enough to turn a man's head to say nothing of the composing upon the paper.

Murphy Sun.

As told us by their friends, we recognize the item as an apple-ate Judge.

The ladies of the Catholic church gave a dinner and supper in the vacant house next to the Parson House Tuesday. It was liberally provided, but the general opinion was that the food served did not in accordance with the meal served.

Morgan Sun.

Now, what we want to know is, what was the price too high or too near the altitude to the dauce.—Murry Sun.

A Show Window. Some of our hustling town boys, to their tomfoolery, embarras-cas of the elegant show windows at Dulin, West & Co.'s, on Second Street. We should like to see all such goods which will be engaged in profiteering, or rough-and-ready exercises to at once repair to the commonwealth of our city, where you can have all the room necessary to engage in such sports. New boys, "walk tight," and let the management of the show windows be the bane of the managers, and the only honorable thing to do under the circumstances.

Dulin, West & Co. will open on Saturday a large hall, and some assortment of flat braids.

Scrofles eradicated and all blisters disposed of by Hood's Sennepitum, which by its vitalizing and alterative effects, makes pure blood.

The Old Mast Die. Died—in this city, The Young Men died on Sunday, 21st inst. at 11:30 a.m. in a room in the rear of our old Mast eight hundred and what's the difference? It is one in the long list of holidays that expends with age because it is one of the few founded on religion. Seafarers hold a mast and go to the southwest from which they sprung.

Why Thanksgiving Day was inaugurated, or a Happy Day. Instituted by—no one knows. But it is known who is in charge of our world of Lord eight hundred and what's the difference? It is one in the long list of holidays that expends with age because it is one of the few founded on religion. Seafarers hold a mast and go to the southwest from which they sprung.

Thanksgiving Day has grown far beyond what it was originally intended to signify or represent because of this religious quality. From giving thanks to the God who gave us the means of food, it is equal to giving thanks to the God of the day. Eat at any time. (Mention this paper.)

Two Antennas to Gil-

W. R. Hanner, a former boy on River Country

Pond River, narrowly escaped the loss of a bad last Saturday. In some way the spirit of the Devil was in his wagon, and he was compelled to stop. Dr. Hanner dressed the wound and it is thought improvement will not be necessary.

A little ten year old son of Plank Hill, while taking the works of an old oil lamp, the right eye was by the spring of the clock slipping out of place and striking the boy in the eye.

If you need any bed clothing, blankets or comforts, Dulin, West & Co., have them cheaper than you ever saw them. We have an interest in a blanket factory and can sell them at whole sale price and make a profit.

Among us

On last Sunday evening, the officers of the M. E. Sunday School, after a short consultation among the leaders, voted to close the school, consisting of four ladies and four gentlemen, and otherwise took initiative steps towards getting up a Christmas tree, for the benefit of the children of the school.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hanner, who are visiting relatives in New York, are staying with Mr. A. C. Hanner.

Mr. John Hanner has moved to the country, beyond, Medoville, and will return to business yesterday.

Mr. C. H. McCrary has returned home from a visit to friends in Henderson.

Mrs. Will E. McGary, since her return home, has been confined to her room.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hanner, who are visiting relatives in New York, are staying with Mr. A. C. Hanner.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Summers have returned from an extended visit to relatives in the country. Joe reports himself greatly improved by the trip.

Appropriate religious services will be held, to-day, at 11 o'clock, in the Christian church, and all denominations are invited to participate.

The "mechanic post" thus pathetically describes the fate of the festive turkey:

A turkey stood in a cranberry swamp, And sang till his song was sour;

For all day long, he sang this song: "We will meet on the beautiful shore."

Are you satisfied with the wear your shoes are giving you, if not buy your shoes of Dulin, West & Co., and you will get a shoe that will give you perfect satisfaction.

Catarrh cannot be Cured by LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they can not reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a disease of the blood, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's catarrh cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and heart. It is a specific for Catarrh. It is a most quiet medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription, it is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, and perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. The Best Plaster—Dimples piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Palisine and balsam it over pain. It is better than any plaster. When the plaister is applied it is like a bandage, and when it is off the skin is smooth. There is nothing so good for a lame back or a pain in the back or pains in the side. A sore throat can never be relieved in one application. I can give you a flannel bandage with Palisine. For sale by St. Bernard Drug Store, Earlington; Ben T. Robinson, Morton Gap, Geo. King, St. Charles.

Mr. W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Elizabethtown, Ky., for the past twelve years.—"Chamberlain's Cough Remedy" is a safe and reliable medicine, and I have never sold it to any other person. It is good for this. No! will cure a cold so quickly; so other is a certain preventive and cure for those other ailments which rarely if ever call for a physician. For sale by St. Bernard drug store, Earlington; Ben T. Robinson, Morton Gap; Geo. King, St. Charles.

Teacher—Johnnie, when was your first discovered? Johnnie—Please air, on the mucilage.

Are your children subject to cropp? If so, you should never be without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is a certain cure for cropp, and has never been known to fail. If given freely as soon as the cropp appears it will stop the attack. It is hard to allay the irritation of the children, and never disappoints them. There is no danger in giving this remedy in large and frequent doses, as it contains nothing injurious to the body. It is safe in cases of all sorts of fevers. Live a year or two with this medicine, and you will never be troubled again.

Clarke Meacham, the sandy-haired pianist who pretends over the destinies of the Hopkinsville-Kentucky, is responsible for the following:

The United States cannot afford to have a policy of "go green" towards the Sandwich Islands. There has already been a severance of official relations and news of a doubtful character is constantly especieal. We have pursued a plain blunt policy already towards Hawaii, but failed to know. On the other hand the islands will be thrust out for gone if their independence is interfered with. Where the Willis there should be a way to settle all such questions and whether we lose Hawaii by the transaction we should either do the Pacific thing or else do nothing at all.

THE BURDEN OF AGE.
"Aah, how the years pass us like dreams!"—Walt Whitman.
There is a rainbow over the morning mountains.
There is a glow of gold about the sandia,
And the sun is down with all his strength.
Now, may, it is not so—"long ago!"
"I do not know what I am to do."
"As how the years pass us like dreams?"

There is a plume in the moon's white gauze.
A spirit mounting from the dead and risen,
And Love is made of all sets up his throne.
Now, say, it is not so—"long ago!"

"As how the years pass us like dreams?"

There is a glimmer in the moon's white gauze.
"Aah, how the years pass us like dreams!"

There is a wonder light on woodland trees.
A route in the broad roads of time,
And the Moes with rapt bewilderment leaves,
Now, say, it is not so—"long ago!"

"As how the years pass us like dreams?"

There is a smile in the moon's white gauze.
A spirit mounting from the dead and risen,
And Love is made of all sets up his throne.
Now, say, it is not so—"long ago!"

There is a smile in the moon's white gauze.
A spirit mounting from the dead and risen,
And Love is made of all sets up his throne.
Now, say, it is not so—"long ago!"

"As how the years pass us like dreams?"

There is a glow in the moon's white gauze.
A spirit mounting from the dead and risen,
And Love is made of all sets up his throne.
Now, say, it is not so—"long ago!"
